WINSOME YIELD

Winsome Yield is a period saltbox design completely repurposed by a young family for contemporary cottage living. The village feel of the property is enhanced by a collection of buildings including a separate tavern and studio, and immaculate cottage gardens.

SHAW-HARRISON HOUSE

Beautifully situated amid elegant, expansive gardens is the Shaw-Harrison House, part of a 1684 William Penn land grant. This lovely estate with a bank barn has been meticulously restored to its classic Bucks County farm house roots.

DAVID BEANS HOUSE

The David Beans House and adjacent converted barn date back to 1806 and 1847, respectively. The property had a long history as a working farm. The present owner of the original main house purchased it decades ago and has lovingly returned this home to its pure Bucks County farm house heritage using original and period materials and a treasure trove of favorite family antiques.

DAVID BEANS BARN

This thoughtfully converted four story stone barn that once supported the main house and farm is now a separate private residence and features massive exposed beams, interior stone walls, Mercer tile, and reuse of much of the barn's original building elements. This charming home beautifully combines cozy sitting areas with the fluid open space of a barn.

BRIE'S RUN FARM

Brie's Run Farm was also part of a William Penn land grant. In the heart of historic Solebury, it is surrounded by acres of spectacular gardens, ponds, streams, and is complemented by numerous restored stone structures hosting dramatic exterior entertainment areas. The main house is believed to have been constructed around 1783 with numerous generational additions and enhancements added over two centuries.

TWO BONUS TOUR LOCATIONS

Guided tour of the Parry Mansion Museum presented by the New Hope Historical Society from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. on House Tour Day. The mansion has been restored and furnished with period furnishings representing different generations when the Parrys occupied the Mansion.

PARRY MANSION MUSEUM
Guided Tour 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

The Honey Hollow Visitor's Center for the Bucks County Audubon Society is located in the 700 acre National Historic Landmark Honey Hollow watershed. The building has been placed on the National Register of Historic Places. Tour hours are 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Inspired by the beauty and history of the Honey Hollow Watershed, local plein air artists will be on the grounds painting that day.
