Roger Stikeleather

Roger grew up in a rural area of North Carolina and is a graduate of the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, moving north shortly after college with a career-relocation. Roger & Pattie came to Trinity Church in the early 90's having relocated to the area while he was employed by Johnson & Johnson in New Brunswick. They were introduced to Trinity as a result of one of the early House Tours and feeling really drawn and connected to the warmth and spirit of the many parishioners working at the homes that day. Their daughters now grown (having attended Trinity Day School), Roger is professionally retired and the proud Poppy of 6 1/2 year old triplet grandchildren who also live locally. During his years at Trinity, Roger has participated in various ministries and committees including Outreach, Pastoral Care, Men's Breakfast, Finance, and Stewardship; as a member of the Vestry and Warden (90's and currently as well as serving as Building Co-Chair (after the fire), and Co-Chair of the Pipe Organ Capital Campaign. Roger has also been a Trinity Autumn House Tour Co-Chair for the last two years. While Pattie and Roger spend some of their winter in Vero Beach Florida, they consider Buck County and Trinity Church home.

Trey Wilson

Trey Wilson, a member of Trinity since 1994, has been involved with teaching Sunday school for 15 years, newcomers and greeters, spiritual formation, and outreach ministries. In 2005, he founded Tabasamu, an international dental outreach to places where there is little access to dental health and education. Trinity has been partnering with Tabasamu at every level since 2005, which contributes to these trips, being the favorite experiences of his life every year! In addition, Trey has completed classes at General Theological Seminary in Spiritual Direction. Trey has lived and worked as a dentist in Manhattan for 30 years, but considers Carversville and Trinity to be his real "homes".

Samantha Bode

Samantha Bode is a freelance writer, editor, wife, and mom to three children and one awesome dog. As a child at St. Francis Episcopal Church in Norris, Tennessee, Sam served as an acolyte, choir member, and performed a sermon or two for children's services. She attended college at an Episcopal school, Sewanee, also in Tennessee. While there she served at All Saints' Chapel as a Sacristan, lay reader, and thurible slinger. The Episcopal Church has always played an important role in Sam's life wherever she has lived, whether in Alexandria, Virginia; Washington, D.C.; Phoenix, Arizona; San Francisco, California; and Paris, France. Trinity Solebury has a special place in the hearts of Sam's family since they moved here in 2007. Her two younger children were both baptized in this church and it has always felt like home.

Doug Brindley

Doug describes himself as having been raised in the Anglo-Saxonism of the Methodist Church in Mississippi. He and his wife Gillian were married in 2006 and since then have been grateful participants in Trinity's peaceful and welcoming community. They were initially drawn to Trinity by the outstanding recommendations they received from neighbors about Trinity Day School. Doug is anxious to be of use to the congregation and in wider ministry going forward. He is President/CEO of Software Productivity Research, having been with the firm since 1997. Prior to that, he was with EDS from 1983 -1997. Doug and Gillian live in New Hope PA with their two children, Harper (baptized at Trinity and attended Trinity Day School) and Walker (baptized at Trinity and currently enrolled in Trinity Day School). He holds a Bachelor of Art degree from Millsaps College and a Master of Arts degree from the University of Tennessee.

Stan Broadbent

Stan Broadbent is a Senior Vice President of Pennsylvania Trust. His responsibilities include the cultivation of centers of influence and new client development. In a career spanning more than 35 years, Stan has provided financial, estate and investment planning services to affluent individuals, families, professionals and executives. Prior to joining Pennsylvania Trust he was Managing Director at Glenmede Trust Company for nearly 23 years, serving in various capacities including Head of Business Development and as a member of the firm's Senior Management Committee. Before Glenmede, he was a Vice President in the Trust Department of CoreStates/New Jersey National Bank, where his responsibilities included the sale of personal and employee benefit trust services. He is a board member of the Hepatitis-B Foundation and a Director and Secretary of the Kennel Club of Philadelphia, as well as a member of the Philadelphia, Bucks, Delaware, Montgomery and Mercer County Estate Planning Councils. Stan and his wife Gerri, and their daughter Allison and son Stephen, have been members of Trinity Solebury since 2002. During that time, each year Stan has coordinated the entertainment and provided the sound system for LobsterFest.

Paul DiCicco

I was baptized and confirmed in the Roman Catholic Church. I received a BA from Temple University and a Masters in Ed. from Beaver College. I was a special education teacher for 20 years in the city of Philadelphia. I moved to Bucks County in 1987 and by 1994 pursued a career in real estate. I became the President of the Bucks County Association of Realtors in 2000 and was Realtor of the Year in 2003. Currently, I am the owner and broker of Keller Williams Real Estate located at the Doylestown Commerce Center. My wife Carole and I moved from Doylestown to Solebury in 2003. We began attending services at Trinity in 2009. We have three adult children, two of which are married.
