Trinity Church is proud to celebrate its 25th Trinity Autumn House Tour on Saturday, October 17, 2015. You have been a generous supporter to Trinity Church in many ways and we welcome your contributions for this major fund raiser.

This annual event which has presented some of Bucks County's most beautiful homes and private gardens features five homes, each with a unique and rich character. We are very grateful to the homeowners for opening their homes to this year's tour. As a special bonus celebrating our 25th anniversary, Tim Harrell, Music Director, will be offering a personal lecture and recital with Trinity's Opus 17 hand crafted Pipe Organ on Tour Day.

We are also pleased to be working with and honoring Bucks County Audubon Society at Honey Hollow, Heritage Conservancy, Solebury Township Historical Society, and Bowman's Hill Wildflower Preserve for their numerous preservation and conservation contributions to our greater community.

The proceeds from the House Tour help fund various charitable community, regional, and national programs that Trinity Church supports, as well as help defray costs to maintain our buildings and grounds which are heavily used within our Parish and by many local organizations. We are also pleased that a portion of our proceeds will go directly to Peacemeal, a Trinity Church Solebury founded ministry that provides dinners and hospitality to local citizens living with HIV and AIDS. This ministry has served our community faithfully for over 20 years.

We have numerous ways for you to contribute and please see the enclosed detailed information sheet for more about each sponsorship level. All levels of support are greatly appreciated and will be respectfully utilized.

We hope you will again be a part of this special event. Please contact any of the House Tour Chairs or Trinity Church if you have any questions. The enclosed information sheet and checks may be completed and mailed to Trinity Church at the address in the letterhead above.

Thank you for your willingness to support this important event.
